Montague's Balm.
An Indian remedy for the Tooth-Ache.
THE established reputation and constantly increasing demand for this "Indian" remedy of pain and preservative of the teeth, has induced the subscriber to offer it to the American public. Arrangements have been made to supply agents in all the principal cities and towns in the United States, so as to place it within the reach of those suffering and likely to suffer with this most harassing of all Aches—Tooth Ache.
When applied according to directions given on the bottle, it has never failed to afford immediate and permanent relief. It also arrests the decay in defective teeth, and relieves the soreness which so frequently renders a strong tooth useless. The application and remedy are simple, innocent, and not unpleasant; and the large number of persons in different sections of the country, that have already experienced such delightful and salutary effects from the use of the Balm, are ready to bear, (for the public good) their testimony to its unrivaled qualities. It is an Indian remedy obtained singularly and unexpectedly, and may be regarded by the civilized world as the most valuable discovery of the Red man of the Woods.

Anti-Spa-modic Tincture, or MOTHER'S COMFORT.
This medicine has been prepared with special reference to the wants of families, in which the most minute particularity has been observed, in order that mothers might keep and use it with the most perfect safety, and with the confident assurance that it will afford relief when very many of the standard remedies fail. The proprietor, before offering it to the public, has taken occasion to converse with some distinguished physicians of Virginia, and with special pains to speak of all the various parts and proportions of this medicine; and those that know its component parts, have pronounced it one of the very best compounds for the following diseases that can be prepared, and may be used with perfect safety, as well with the new born babe, as the man of three score and ten. If those that use it are not satisfied that it is the very best remedy for the diseases here enumerated, they can return the bottle and receive back their money. It is boldly asserted that it is almost (if not quite) infallible in Diarrhea in all its various forms, Dysentery, Cramp-colic, Cholera Morbus, and Asiatic Cholera; also, After Pains of lying-in Females; for this it is the Mother's Comfort, and because it is the very best preparation for the summer diseases of children, that has yet entered the chamber of the distressed. It is also a powerful remedy for cramps from whatever cause produced. Ladies in the most delicate situations may take it under any of the above circumstances with perfect safety and equal benefit. The public may be assured that the Anti-Spa-modic Tincture, or Mother's Comfort, has been subjected to the most rigid and scientific examination by some of the most extensive (physicians) practitioners in Virginia, who now recommend it in their practice.
